INFORMATIONAL BULLETIN

Informational Bulletin #03-30, April 16, 2003

The following is an Informational Bulletin from the Department of Public Safety, Division of Homeland Security. This Bulletin will be used to keep your agency up to date on current issues that pertain to Homeland Security and which you can use for in-service training.

THREAT LEVEL: 3 - YELLOW – ELEVATED

SUBJECT: THREAT LEVEL LOWERED TO YELLOW (ELEVATED)

Attorney General John Ashcroft and Homeland Security Director Tom Ridge have announced the lowering of the United States Terrorist Threat level to Yellow – Elevated, from Orange – High Risk. The Connecticut Division of Homeland Security, in consultation with Governor John Rowland, the State of Connecticut will also reduce its threat level to Yellow – Elevated.

In response to the lowering of the national threat level, the country will also begin to reduce Operation Liberty Shield beginning on Thursday, April 17, 2003 at 1200 hours.
